

I am an avid fan of XM Radio and have gone as far to own 3 units. I beleive it is my right as a citizen to be able to choose what I want to hear and when. IT should not be left up to lobbyists and outside organizations to determine what I can and cannot listen to. Furthermore; since I pay a premium for this service it should not be anybody's business as to what programming I choose to listen to.